Navigating the Transition into High School

Starting High School: A Big Step!

Moving to high school is an exciting new chapter, but it can also feel overwhelming. New teachers, new classmates, a bigger school so many changes at once! With the right mindset, you can step into high school with confidence and ease.

What to Expect in High School

New Subjects & Teachers High school introduces new lessons and a variety of teachers.

More Independence

You'll have more responsibility for your schedule, homework, and choices.

Bigger Social Groups

More students mean new friendships and opportunities!

Different Rules & Expectations

Understanding school rules and time management is important.

Managing Worries About High School

Feeling Nervous? That's Normal!

Everyone feels nervous about new things at first.

Ask for Help

Teachers, parents, and older students are happy to guide you.

Plan Ahead

Visit the school, learn your schedule, and practice routines.

Breathe & Take It One Step at a Time You don't need to have everything figured out right away!

Making New Friends & Finding Your Place

Be Open to New Friendships

Sit with different people, join clubs, and be friendly.

Look for People with Similar Interests

Sports, music, art, gaming find your community!

Be Yourself

True friends will appreciate you for who you are.

Kindness Goes a Long Way

A simple smile or hello can start a friendship.

Staying Organized & Managing Schoolwork

Use a Planner

Keep track of homework, tests, and important dates.

Don't Be Afraid to Ask Questions

Teachers are there to help you succeed.

Find a Study Routine That Works for You

Break big tasks into smaller steps.

Take Care of Yourself

Sleep, eat well, and make time to relax!
