

MG Global Coaching Academy: Student Agreement & Code of Conduct

As a student of the "Become a Spiritual Life Coach" program at MG Global Coaching Academy, you are part of a community committed to personal growth, professional integrity, and mutual respect. The following agreement outlines the expectations for conduct throughout the course to ensure a positive, enriching experience for all participants. By enrolling in this program, you agree to uphold the following principles:

1. COMMITMENT TO LEARNING AND GROWTH

- Active Participation: You are expected to engage fully in all course activities, including attending live sessions (if applicable), completing assignments, and participating in group discussions. This commitment will help you get the most from your experience and contribute positively to the learning environment.
- Openness to Feedback: Be open to receiving feedback from instructors, peers, and yourself. Growth as a spiritual life coach comes from reflecting on your own learning and making continuous improvements.

2. RESPECT FOR OTHERS

- Confidentiality: The program may involve group discussions and peer coaching. You agree to respect the privacy of all participants by keeping any personal information shared in these sessions confidential.
- Mutual Respect: Treat all fellow students, instructors, and guest speakers with respect and kindness. Engage in discussions with an open mind, free from judgment, and be supportive of others' growth journeys.
- Non-Discrimination: You agree to avoid any form of discrimination or exclusion based on race, gender, sexual orientation, religion, age, or any other identity. MG Global Coaching Academy is committed to fostering an inclusive and welcoming environment for all.

3. PROFESSIONAL INTEGRITY

- Honesty: Complete all coursework, assignments, and assessments with honesty and integrity. This is essential for your own growth and for maintaining the high standards of our academy.
- No Plagiarism: All submissions and work must be your own. You agree to give credit where due, and avoid any form of plagiarism, copying, or misrepresentation of others' work as your own.
- Responsibility in Practice: As you begin practicing spiritual coaching, you agree to act ethically, prioritize client well-being, and respect professional boundaries. It is essential that you operate within your scope of knowledge and experience.

4. PERSONAL RESPONSIBILITY

- Accountability: You are responsible for your own learning journey. Make sure to meet deadlines, manage your time effectively, and seek help when needed. Your success is in your hands, and the academy is here to support you.
- Self-Care: Given the emotional depth of spiritual coaching, it's important to care for your own mental, emotional, and spiritual health. Reach out to instructors if you ever feel overwhelmed or need guidance.

5. ZERO TOLERANCE FOR MISCONDUCT

- Harassment and Bullying: Any form of harassment, bullying, or disrespectful behavior toward other students or staff will not be tolerated and may result in immediate removal from the program.
- Ethical Breaches: Any violation of this code, including breaches of confidentiality, plagiarism, or professional misconduct, will be addressed seriously and may lead to expulsion from the course without refund.

6. COPYRIGHT AND INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

- All course materials, including videos, written content, and resources, are the intellectual property of MG Global Coaching Academy. You agree not to share, reproduce, or distribute these materials without explicit permission.

7. CERTIFICATION AND CONTINUED LEARNING

- Upon successful completion of the course, including all assessments and required practice hours, you will receive a completion certification as a Spiritual Life Coach. Continued learning is encouraged, and you are invited to stay connected with the academy for further development opportunities.

Please submit this completed form to marinagovier@gmail.com.

We look forward to reviewing your application and welcoming you onto the course!